MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRPERSON

Dear Esteemed Participants, Teachers & Readers,

Warm Greetings from the Heart of Madhya Pradesh – Indore!

It gives me immense pride and joy to witness the Indore Democratic Summit returning for its 2026 edition, marking the fourth chapter of this remarkable journey. As India's first and only Urban Local Body-collaborated youth conference, IDS continues to reflect the spirit of participatory democracy and the power of informed dialogue among our youth.

Each edition of IDS has grown in scale, thought, and purpose, becoming a beacon of opportunity for thousands of students to express, deliberate, and lead. Through this platform, we are fostering not just orators and debaters-but responsible citizens and future leaders.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to the team at YouthGenex for their continued vision and tireless efforts in shaping this initiative. To all our participants, educators, and partners-thank you for being the pillars of this journey.

Together, let us celebrate democracy, dialogue, and the dreams of tomorrow.

Warm Regards,

ABOUT INDORE DEMOCRATIC SUMMIT

The Indore Democratic Summit (IDS) is Central India's premier youth conference that brings together brilliant young minds to deliberate, debate, and develop dynamic solutions for the world's most pressing challenges.

Since its inception, IDS has emerged as a platform where students experience the functioning of democratic institutions, cultivate leadership skills, and engage in intellectual discourse that shapes their worldview. Driven by the vision of nurturing future changemakers, IDS is not just an event-it is a movement.

JOURNEY OF IDS

Launched with the mission to create a democratic learning ecosystem, the Indore Democratic Summit began its journey in 2023. The first edition laid the foundation for a future-ready platform.

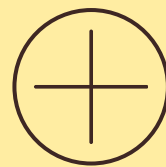

In 2024, IDS took a significant leap forward. The evolution of IDS reflects a commitment to innovation and inclusivity, with newer committees, broader outreach, and dynamic formats introduced every year.

Building on its growing legacy, IDS continued to evolve with an even stronger focus on innovation and inclusivity- introducing expanded committees, wider outreach, and more dynamic formats. Each edition reflects a deeper commitment to creating a transformative, large-scale platform for youth leadership, civic engagement, and democratic learning.

With three successful editions completed, IDS 2026 builds upon a strong legacy-offering a holistic space for youth diplomacy, governance, policy, and leadership.

EVENT STRUCTURE

IDS 2026 is structured around multiple flagship segments:

Youth Parliament (Classes VII–XII)

The flagship segment of IDS, the Youth Parliament, simulates the legislative process of Indian democratic institutions. Participants will take on the roles of legislators, parliamentarians and leaders, engaging in structured debates, drafting resolutions, and proposing policy alternatives. Themes will span national development, education reform, technology governance, and youth representation in politics.

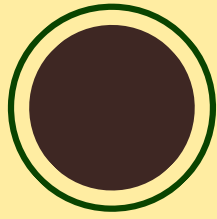

Commerce Challenge (Classes X–XII)

Bridging intellect with industry, the Commerce Challenge is a business and economics-based simulation where participants pitch financial reforms, present market strategies, and tackle real-world economic crises. With problem statements from industry experts, it serves as an ideal platform for aspiring entrepreneurs and future economists. It is a team event, with each team consisting of three members.

Panchayat (Classes X–XII)

A dynamic simulation where participants act as village leaders to solve community disputes and issues through discussions, policy-making and conflict resolution. It builds leadership, decision-making skills, and offers insights into grassroots of democracy, inspiring students to drive innovative solutions for a self-reliant progressive India.

Sustainability Challenge (X- XII)

The Sustainability Challenge is a forward-thinking platform that inspires participants to become changemakers for a better future. It invites young innovators to identify real-world environmental and social issues and design solutions that are practical, scalable, and sustainable.

Participants work on ideas that address areas such as climate action, waste management, water conservation, renewable energy, and sustainable urban living. The emphasis is on innovation backed by feasibility, ensuring that solutions can move beyond concepts into real impact.

By combining creativity with responsibility, this segment cultivates a mindset of conscious leadership, long-term thinking, and environmental stewardship. It equips participants to contribute meaningfully to a more sustainable world. It is a team event, with each team consisting of three members.
